PLANK · REF CF493

Comfy Grey Brushed Matt Lacquered Engineered Oak

Comfy Grey is a soft, grey-toned oak plank with a brushed texture and a matt lacquer. The grey takes the warmth out of the oak just enough to suit cooler, contemporary interiors.

A 150mm width supplied in random lengths gives a natural, irregular joint pattern that looks like a traditional laid floor — well suited to period properties and cottages as well as modern homes.

Notes

Items marked available on request are not yet confirmed for this product and are deliberately left blank — please contact us to confirm installation method, underfloor heating limits, pack coverage and certification before specifying or installing. Natural oak varies in colour and grain between boards and batches; photographs are representative, so always approve a physical sample before ordering.
